Martial Law Seals City

BERLIN (AP) — Gunfire was reported cracking through the afternoon Friday in the Polish broad rebellion city of Poznan. It apparently was from a Red Polish army effort to mop up die-hard snipers.

A closedown of communications under martial law all but sealed off the big industrial city where possibly 100 died in the outbreak Thursday against poor living conditions.

There were indications that the Iron Curtain may be slamming down again all along the Soviet satellite frontiers as the result of the Poznan revolt.

Telephone communication from Stockholm to the Sovietized Baltic states—Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia—was suddenly cut off Friday night after a Moscow operator broke into a conversation. The Swedish Telephone company said it was told there was a "technical breakdown."

The West Berlin newspaper Telegram—the first here to report the Poznan outbreak Thursday—said noise of fighting was still being heard in Poznan Friday afternoon. It claimed several communist officials were "literally torn apart" by angry demonstrators Thursday.

Telegram quoted a foreign businessman as saying troop reinforcements were being brought in when he left the Polish city late Thursday night.

It said the businessman met about 70 tanks and two battalions of motorized troops headed for Poznan.

The Polish Red regime sought to pacify the rebels in a broadcast speech by Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz. He promised the Poznan Poles the better life they demanded and asked them to support his (Continued on Page Nine)

Eisenhower Will Drive To Gettysburg To Rest For 2 Weeks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will drive to Gettysburg Saturday morning for at least two weeks of convalescence. This was announced Friday by Press Secretary James C. Hagerty who, however, still was shedding no new light on the President's future political plans.

Symington Given Nod In Poll For Prexy Nomination

MCLEANSBORO, Ill. (AP) — A group of more than 600 southeastern Illinois Democrats, ranging from state office holders to precinct captains, gave Sen. Symington (D-Mo.) the nod Thursday in a poll on the party's choice for presidential candidate.

The vote was taken at a rally sponsored by John Steele of McLeansboro, one time governor of Illinois who supports Symington for the nomination.

Five of the party's leading contenders appeared on a printed ballot passed out to all attending the rally.

Of 311 votes cast, Symington got 135, 12 more than Adlai Stevenson. Gov. Harrison of New York received 31, Sen. Kefauver of Tennessee 19 and Sen. Johnson of Texas 3.

May Purchase Polio Vaccine For Any Age

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — The State Health Department announced Friday Illinois physicians now may purchase polio vaccine and use it at their discretion for persons of any age.

Dr. Roland R. Cross, health director, released 236,817 cubic centimeters of Eli Lilly and 106,675 cc. of Plimam-Moore polio vaccine for commercial distribution.

The State Health Department will continue to provide physicians with free vaccine for all children who have reached 6 months of age and have not passed their 20th birthday, and pregnant women.

Cross said releasing vaccine into commercial channels now makes it possible for physicians to give it to men and women over 20 who are willing to pay for the vaccine.

The department reported that polio cases in Illinois this year have been fewer than last year. A total of 99 cases have been recorded since Jan. 1, a drop of 10 from the same period a year ago.

Health officials are continuing to recommend the polio inoculations throughout the summer months as long as there is no increased prevalence of the disease.

Ike Signs 33-Billion-Dollar Highway Construction Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, described as "highly pleased," signed Friday the 33-billion-dollar highway construction bill.

Within minutes after Eisenhower's signature put in motion the government's biggest peacetime spending program, Secretary of Commerce Weeks released funds to get some of the construction under way.

He predicted that thousands of lives would be saved by safer roads, that traffic jams would be greatly eased, and the nation's economy spurred to new peaks of business activity and employment.

It is estimated that when the program gets fully under way, up to 630,000 persons will be working on the roads during summer peak periods, with hundreds of thousands of others laboring to contribute materials and equipment.

Weeks also said many jobs will be created in new businesses that will spring up along the routes, such as motels, restaurants, gas stations and gift shops.

Some businesses along existing routes are expected to be hurt because the Bureau of Public Roads said there will be "substantial" relocation of highways. But the bureau said "the program won't tear up existing business any more than can be helped."

Weeks apportioned $1,125,000,000 to the 48 states, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Alaska for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Of the total apportioned, a billion dollars will be used to begin construction on a 41,000-mile system of superhighways linking every state with controlled access roads, most of them four lanes or more.

The remainder of the money will go to the states for building primary, secondary and urban roads.

Weeks said he expects some of the projects to be financed by new funds will be under construction within 60 or 90 days.

Wilson Denies Charges Ike's Administration Skipped On Air Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Wilson Friday denied Democratic charges that the Eisenhower administration has skipped dangerously on air power in its drive to balance the budget.

Under instructions from President Eisenhower to "lay it on the line," Wilson appeared before a Senate Armed Services Committee and insisted U. S. defenses are strong.

He said the striking power of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force has been augmented steadily with the new weapons, including nuclear equipment.

"We also expect," he said, "to have in the relatively near future ballistic missiles of intermediate range which can be launched from our ships or Allied bases, able to carry nuclear attack to practically any point on the earth's surface."

All of this, Wilson said in his prepared statement, "gives us a dynamic military power of true substance." However, he added that "we do not need or wish to flaunt it before the world."

The defense chief said: "Our objective is to deter war by every honorable means. It is not our objective to overarm or to give any country cause for alarm."

This apparently was a reference to Russia.

For three hours, the Pentagon boss and the subcommittee investigating air power went around and around on the question of whether budget-balancing instead of defense requirements had dictated military spending since 1953. (Continued on Page Nine)

Officials Plan To Spend Weekend In Auto Plant

GRANITE CITY, Ill. (AP) — Even though mass picketing ended Friday, some 150 boilermakers and several union officials spent the fifth straight day in the struck auto plant of A. O. Smith Corp.

The men, who insisted they were not trapped but were staying inside to avoid possible violence, indicated they planned to spend the weekend in the plant.

Meantime, Circuit Judge Quinten Spivey at Edwardsville issued an order directing boilermakers Local 575 to show Tuesday why it should not be cited for contempt for not observing his temporary injunction against turning back workmen at the plant.

About half the men in the plant were union boilermakers who followed orders of international officers to go through the picket line of the machinists' union.

Fred George of Kansas City, international trustee of the union and a leader of the group in the plant, said the men were eating at the company cafeteria and sleeping in shifts on cots and in automobiles.

Steel Crisis Races Toward Climax As Parleys Continue

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's steel crisis rushed toward a climax Friday night as negotiators still bogged down in efforts to avert an industrywide strike at midnight Saturday.

"We got nowhere," said David J. McDonald, United Steel Workers union president, after the union's latest negotiation session with the companies produced no break in the deadlock over a new wage contract.

However, negotiations were expected to continue Saturday.

Plant operations already were disrupted with furnaces being cooled across the land. Industry sources said production losses already aggregated "millions of dollars."

Much of the strategic maneuvering over the contract was behind the scenes. Industry negotiators, after their session with union representatives Friday, reportedly held consultations with high-ranking officials of most of the 12 major steel firms involved.

The crux appeared to be whether the nation's big steel companies would back down from their insistence on a long-term contract to succeed the present two-year pact, which expires Saturday night.

The union has been adamant in opposing a management proposal for a five-year contract. The union contends it cannot tie its hands for so long a period.

A strike, if it comes, would be the fifth in the industry in 11 years.

The union struck for 12 hours last year in wage reopening negotiations; 55 days in 1952; 37 days in 1949 and 28 days in 1946.

The long 1952 strike cost an unofficially estimated five-billion-dollar loss, counting lost production, lost wages, and shutdowns in other industries dependent on steel.

Even if a strike should be averted at the 11th hour this year, it might be a month before steel operations return to normal. The banking of fires, presently under way, takes about three days, but the reheating takes much longer.

Bear Attacks Woman Downtown St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A 450-lb. bear slated for use on a television program here—attacked a woman Friday, knocking her down with a forepaw.

The victim was Mrs. Laura Murphy of St. Louis, an employee of the Union Electric Co.

Police said the Syrian bear was tied by a rope to scaffolding and struck Mrs. Murphy, apparently without provocation.

The animal's trainer, Walter Klausner, pulled the animal away from Mrs. Murphy, who was scratched and knocked to the sidewalk by the blow.

The animal was to be shown on a program giving a preview of the Moolah Temple Shrine's annual circus, which opens Friday night.

Mrs. Murphy was treated by a physician.

FBI Seizes Two Who Took Part In Ill. Robbery

CHICAGO (AP) — The FBI said Friday it has seized two men it charged took part in the $4,172 robbery of the Lake Villa, Ill., Trust and Savings Bank June 7.

Both were arraigned on charges of violating the national bank robbery act, and bail was set at $25,000 each. The FBI said a third man is being sought.

Held are Edward Lee Arnold, 28, of Kenosha, Wis., and Edward Clarence Bond, Jr., 30, of Plainfield, Ill.

Bond was seized Thursday in the Joliet-Lockport Auto Wash at Joliet, a business he operates. Arnold was captured Tuesday as he fled after breaking into the Veterans Club at Oregon, Ill.

Joseph L. Schmit, assistant in-charge of the FBI Chicago office, said Edward W. Riley, of Kenosha, owner of a fleet of automobile carrier trucks, is sought as a third participant of the Lake Villa holdup.

Schmit identified Riley as driver of the getaway car.

The agent did not reveal whether any of the money was recovered.

He said the seizure of Arnold by an Ogle County deputy sheriff, Edward Lang, and an Oregon policeman, William Burright, provided the major break in the hunt for the bank robbers.

Elect Handley For Governor At The Indiana GOP Caucus

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Gov. George W. Craig suffered a crushing defeat at the Indiana Republican Convention Friday as Sen. William E. Jenner's choice for governor, Harold W. Handley, swept to a second-ballot victory.

Sen. Homer E. Capehart, who has tried to keep clear of the bitter Craig-Jenner battle for power, was easily renominated over token opposition to run for a third term.

Handley, now lieutenant governor, was backed by Jenner for governor and was the only one of five gubernatorial candidates termed "unacceptable" by Craig.

Handley was only 31 votes short of the 1,017 needed for nomination on the first ballot. He went over the top with 1,430 on the second. Only a majority is needed in Indiana conventions.

It was a bitter day for Craig in the climax of four years of battling with Jenner, the state's junior U.S. Senator. The governor was booed by some and applauded by others when he introduced the keynote speaker, Rep. William Springer of Illinois. Springer himself drew applause.

Indiana Democrats also plagued by factionalism, picked Claude Wickard of Camen, former secretary of agriculture, Tuesday as their Senate candidate to oppose Capehart. Mayor Ralph Tucker of Terre Haute will be pitted by the Democrats against Handley in November.

Craig's political future seemed dimmed by the convention that saw anti-Craig candidates nominated for most statewide offices. It was possible that Craig, highly regarded by the Eisenhower administration, might have lost a chance for a high federal appointment. Craig, former national commander of the American Legion, was unable to succeed himself under the State Constitution.

On the other hand, Jenner's prospects for renomination when his Senate term expires in two years were brightened.

Editorial Comment

An Event To Be Avoided

Americans must have read with a start the news that a steel strike will begin at midnight, June 30, unless union-management differences over terms of a new contract are settled by that time.

Declines in automobile and farm equipment already have given 1956 a somewhat uncertain economic outlook. A steel stoppage of even moderate duration would spread trouble through industry as ripples fan out on a lake when a large stone is dropped.

Even Democrats who might stand to benefit at the polls this fall if the economy went into a dive could hardly contemplate the strike prospect without great misgivings.

None of us in this country would willingly accept a business downturn. We could not be sure how far it would go.

Consequently, we who watch the steel negotiations from the sidelines must urge the participants to make all haste in finding a satisfactory common ground before the strike deadline.

Evidently the sticking point at this juncture is the big steel companies' insistence on a five-year no-strike contract. The present pact is a two-year agreement and the United Steel Workers union is reluctant to sign up for the longer term.

The United Automobile Workers and General Motors pioneered the five-year contract, but the motor union indicated disenchantment with the plan after a while. More recently, two major firms in the electrical industry have put together pacts of that length.

It is not for outsiders to judge what length of contract is best suited to the producing and marketing conditions of the steel industry.

All that onlookers can suggest is that the spirit of compromise ought to prevail in meeting this issue.

In the case of the auto workers, they embraced the long term pact willingly. Where there is resistance on one side or the other, as in the steel talks, possibly the extended contract should be undertaken more gradually.

The union objects also to proposed benefits under the contract advanced by management, which include average 7 1/2 cents an hour pay increases, liberalized pensions, and a full year unemployment pay plan. To the union these are "shockingly inadequate."

Nevertheless, here again there would be plenty of room for compromise if that spirit is allowed to take hold of the negotiators.

The lack of progress to date suggests that spirit has not been sufficiently in evidence. Without attempting to assess the blame for that, we would urge that more realistic bargaining be undertaken forthwith, with the determination to achieve concrete results.

The country does not want a major strike which will imperil the fundamentals of its prosperity. The negotiators should understand that clearly.

IF BEE PICKS YOU FOR A TARGET REMOVE THAT STINGER CAREFULLY

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

The season for insects is clearly here.

Q—What is the best first aid procedure for bee or wasp stings when children are stung? Should the stinger be removed immediately or not?

A—If the bee stinger is still in the skin (which it often is) it should be removed by lifting it out with the blade of a knife, or the fingernail and not by grasping it between the fingers and pulling it out. The latter procedure may force more poison into the wound.

The same procedure is best for a wasp or a hornet sting (if the stinger is in) though this is less common. The application of mild ammonia to the area around the sting is likely to ease the pain.

Occasionally, a child or adult is sensitive to bee or wasp stings and requires more heroic measures. Under such circumstances the best procedure is to try to keep out of the way of these stinging insects. Occasionally extracts of these stinging insects can be prepared and injected over a period of time into the sensitive child or adult resulting in desensitization. If this is not possible the parents should obtain instructions from their physicians on the use of epinephrine and the possibilities of trying some kind of constrictor above the sting—if it has occurred on a limb.

Q—Two days after shampooing my head I get a bad case of dandruff. What is the best cleanser for my scalp?

A—This is a common complaint and is the result, in all probability, of a condition known as seborrhea. In difficult cases such as this it would probably be best to obtain special shampoo preparations and substances to put on in between shampooing. A physician skilled in treating disorders of the skin can prescribe.

Q—I like a suntan but this year forsee the chance of only about an hour or so exposure to the sun over weekend. Is there anything which can be applied to the skin to increase the sun's effect and get more tan from the effort?—A. B.

A—The promotion of suntan is a double procedure. There is no officially recommended preparation for such a purpose. There are, however, a great many preparations which can be applied to the skin which lessen the chance of sunburn and thereby increase the chance of tanning. For a person who would be exposed for only once a week, such a preparation might be desirable even if the only thing it did was to present an uncomfortable sunburn.

Q—My husband is 46 years old and has been told by two throat specialists that he has enlarged tonsils. One recommended that they be removed and the other advised against it. What is your opinion?

A—I cannot possibly decide a difference of opinion of this sort. However, I can say that enlarged and diseased tonsils have been successfully removed in a great number of people even older than your husband. I can't say that the men like it, however.

TOBAGO, B.W.I. — Can you imagine Rita Hayworth suffering from stage fright?

Well, you don't have to imagine it. It's true.

The sultry redhead, hitting the comeback trail after nearly a three-year absence from the screen, said she felt very nervous her first few days before the camera.

"I actually had stage fright for about a week—and this after making about 80 or 90 pictures," she said.

"It seemed like a new career, as if I were starting all over again."

Rita hasn't been exactly idle during her long layoff. During that period she shed crooner Dick Haymes, her fourth husband, after sticking by him during a government effort to deport him. She also engaged in a feud with her studio, Columbia Pictures, and lost a $75,000 breach of contract suit against it.

A $150,000 countersuit brought by the studio against her is in abeyance pending the completion of the two remaining pictures under her contract.

Miss Hayworth's comeback vehicle is a 2½ million dollar earthy film called "Fire Down Below," co-starring Bob Mitchum and Jack Lemmon. Some of the scenes are being shot here on Tobago, an island off Trinidad.

Life on location, even for a glamorous actress, is mostly hard work and little play. Over a steak dinner on the veranda of the small hotel at which she is staying, Rita said:

"I've been out only two evenings in the last six weeks. About the only relaxation I've had is an occasional swim."

Rita, who has seen four marriages go on the rocks, indicated she was more interested in work right now than romance.

"I don't really know whether I'm an actress or not," she said. "But it's the only career I've wanted. It's the only one I'm interested in now."

"I'd like to do a comedy for a change—something really crazy. I haven't thought much about television as yet. But something may come up."

About 9:30 Rita began yawning and left for bed, explaining she had a 4:30 a.m. call. She has been working a 12-hour day.

The next morning cameramen were shooting one take over and over again. Rita went through the routine without even a frown.

She is highly popular with the English film crew making the picture, because she is friendly and never gets temperamental.

In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD — A couple of fall guys were whooping it up on the old Paramount lot.

One was frozen-faced Buster Keaton, one of the great comics of the silent screen and knockabout artist par excellence. The other was young Donald O'Connor, himself noted for the fantastic falls he incorporates in his dance routines.

Donald is going to portray Buster in "The Buster Keaton Story," and he has been studying the old master, both from silent movies and in person. When I found them together on an empty movie set, they had been discussing and demonstrating some of their favorite stunts.

Buster commented that he had learned all his stunts in the family's vaudeville act—"the rough-and-tumble act in this country or Europe." What's more, he still is able to perform some fabulous stunts though he is past 60 and only recently recovered from a critical illness.

"You've got to learn how to fall," he explained. "I never take the impact of a fall on the back of my head, the base of my spine, my elbows or my knees. That's how you break bones."

"Buster has taught me many of the falls," Donald added. "But there are a few I'm having trouble with. Like the 'teacup roll.' That's where you do a backward somersault while holding a teacup in one hand not spilling it. I have to hold it in my left hand, and I'm not so good at it."

Ten minutes a day devoted to reading the Bible would make life more interesting. We should learn a great deal, which even television does not teach.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State Dulles can hop from one extreme to another without visible effort. This time it was on the question: Is Russia losing its grip on Communists outside Russia?

He said: Two months ago—the satellites were "still under the iron heel of Soviet force"; six days ago—the "forces of despotism are more highly organized than ever"; Wednesday—Russia's hold on world communism is "gravely imperiled."

With that optimistic statement he seemed to help the new Red line laid down by Moscow: that Red parties everywhere should act like national parties doing their own thinking.

It is possible in time that Communist parties outside Russia will be independent, will quarrel among themselves and with Russia, and that international communism may disintegrate.

For once the Kremlin relaxes its control—and no one can be sure that has happened yet—it may open a door which can never be closed.

No one, including Dulles, can be dogmatic about that yet. There's not enough evidence for it yet.

On what did he base his switch? All that's known to have happened recently is this: Red leaders in Italy, France, East Germany, Britain and the United States asked critical questions of the new bosses in Russia:

"Since you were the most trusted aides of Stalin during all those years of the crimes you now say he committed, what did you do to stop them? And what role did you play in them?"

But these were the minimum questions the Red leaders outside Russia could ask because they were the most obvious ones. They were being asked all around the world by Communist rank-and-filers and non-Communists alike.

The Red leaders outside Russia—except Yugoslavia's Tito who had broken with Stalin—had not only been Stalin's obedient yes-men through the years of his crimes but his undeviating supporters.

It was because they didn't deviate that they remained leaders. So the questions they asked of Stalin's heirs in the Kremlin were really the same questions being asked of them by their own countrymen and their own party members.

Their questions to Nikita Khrushchev, Russian Communist party boss who made the revelations about Stalin, can be interpreted as a request for Khrushchev to take them off the spot by giving answers that will satisfy their own countrymen.

When Khrushchev and his colleagues in Moscow decided — it took them three years after Stalin's death—to disclose his crimes, they certainly must have known what they were doing.

They must have known that in stripping Stalin naked before history, they were raising doubts about themselves — and all Red leaders everywhere who had been Stalin's errand boys — and that questions about their roles in Stalin's career would be asked.

It is possible that they have the answers ready and will give them when they think best. It is also possible they arranged for the Red leaders outside Russia to ask the questions they did.

Dulles said Wednesday the questions raised by Red leaders in the non-Communist countries — although they were almost identical — "were not a prearranged pattern at all."

Unless he has information not known to the public, he is stating an opinion and not a fact. He is also creating an optimism which may have no basis in reality.

Government Personnel Policies All Fouled Up

BY PETER EDSON

NEA-Washington Correspondent

Washington — (NEA) — Administration of government personnel policies has really been tangled up by the recent Supreme Court decision that President Eisenhower violated the law in extending security risk findings to nonsensitive agencies and jobs.

If this means that every job in government will have to be reclassified as sensitive or nonsensitive, it will cause considerable confusion. It is pointed out that a janitor or cleaning woman in the Department of State or Defense might be an extremely effective spy, even if all the file cabinets were locked up tight every night.

Several bills have already been introduced in Congress to reverse the effect of the Supreme Court decision.

Three amendments to the Act of Aug. 26, 1950, have been introduced by Senators Mundt (R-SD), Eastland (D-Miss) and McCarthy (R-Wis). This act gave the heads of 11 specified agencies full authority to suspend without pay any civilian employee if necessary in the interest of national security.

These agencies are the Department of State, Justice, Commerce, Defense, Army, Navy, Air Force and Coast Guard, and the Atomic Energy Commission, the National Security Resources Board and the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics. The proposed Senate amendments would make the 1950 act applicable to all other government agencies and their employees.

Right of any suspended employee to appeal to Civil Service Commission would be waived if a question of security were involved.

Rep. Francis Walter (D-Pa) has offered a new bill to authorize suspension and dismissal of all civil government employees in security risk cases.

Rep. Edward H. Rees (R-Kans) has introduced a bill with a more complicated formula. It would set up a new three-member Loyalty Review Board to which appeals could be taken by employees who think they are dismissed unfairly. It would separate the handling of loyalty and security cases.

In effect, this would be a return to the Truman administration program, when there was a system of loyalty review boards to handle employee risk case appeals. This was abolished by the Eisenhower order of April 1953 which lumped all loyalty risk cases with security-suitability cases.

In the past, Congress has worked at cross purposes in this field. On the one hand it has set up legal standards to make the hiring of security risks more difficult and make their dismissal for cause much easier. On the other hand, in veterans' preference and civil service legislation, Congress has tried to protect government employees in their job rights and prevent un-

Justified firings for political purposes.

The famous McCarran Rider, which authorized summary firings without appeal in sensitive agencies of government was repealed on American Legion insistence. It feared that the McCarran Rider might be used by the Republicans to fire Democratic government employees who had veterans' preference rights.

Government Personnel Officers and security officers who have to handle these cases say that the present legislative tangle is pretty bad. They complain that loyalty, security, personal suitability and civil service rights cases can't always be handled by separate offices. Too many cases overlap.

From a practical personnel management standpoint, there should be one authority in each agency with full power to fire people unsuitable for government employment on any and all grounds. If Congress wanted to prevent wholesale firings, it might limit the number of summary dismissals to not more than 1 per cent of the employees per year.

Amendments to existing legislation may serve temporarily. But eventually Congress may have to provide a complete new code on personnel hiring and firing policy. Obviously there isn't time to straighten out this mess properly before scheduled congressional adjournment in July.

Everybody ought to be happy every day. If you don't have some fun every day, that is a day wasted. Play hard, have fun doing it, and despise wickedness.

Manners Make Friends

When a telephone caller asks "Are you busy or do you have time to chat for awhile?" it is perfectly all right to admit that you are busy and ask if you can call back later. Good manners don't demand that you inconvenience yourself needlessly.

You can be gracious about protecting yourself from too many interruptions at your work.

Complaint Rarely Forces Approval From a Man

All married women want to get some recognition and appreciation from their husbands for all they do as wives, mothers, and homemakers.

But a great many of them seek recognition in the wrong way. Some wives seem to think that if they complain about their problems, talk about how tired they are and let husbands know how bored they get tied down day after day, the husbands will begin to appreciate them.

The fact that all they get for feeling sorry for themselves and acting like martyrs is their husbands' annoyance and growing indifference reveal how wrong their attitude is.

The wife who wins her husband's admiration and respect does it by a more positive attitude toward the job of homemaking.

She does it not by complaining about how hard she works but by taking pride and satisfaction in all that she accomplishes.

Instead of complaining dully about how hard she worked all day, when her husband comes home at night she greets him with a smile and says, "Come along and let me show you what I accomplished today."

If her pride and enthusiasm are obvious, they'll be catching. And her husband will say, "Boy, that looks fine." Or, "I'm a mighty lucky man to have such a smart wife."

That's what the complaining wife really wants to hear, but seldom experiences. For her complaining puts her husband in the wrong frame of mind for paying compliments. The husband of a complaining wife is much more apt to ask, "Other women seem to manage, why can't you?" He rarely says, "You poor darling. I know how hard you work and I appreciate it."

The truth is, we rarely feel sorry for those who feel sorry for themselves. And husbands are no exception to the rule.

Interpreting The News

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst
A few more names have been added to the centuries-old list of men who have died for the liberty of Poland, and there will be more. There has never been any question that the ashes strewn over Poland by Germany and Russia had merely banked the ancient embers. There has never been any doubt of Polish patriotism, or of the anticommunism of her Catholics.

There are several highly interesting angles to the Poznan demonstration. One of the first things to remember is that these Poles have received special inducements and special treatment from the Communist government as "colonizers" of former German territory from which millions of Germans were deported after the war. In general, the former German city of Posen is probably better off than most Polish cities. Yet its people are the first to cry in chorus, "Russians, get out!"

Shrewdly, they asked a big delegation of Western visitors to their trade fair to tell the world of their troubles and their aspirations.

One of the acts of the rioters was to destroy the apparatus by which their Red rulers have jammed Western radio broadcasts. They have been listening, and they want to hear more from the world of truth, only 200 miles away, yet so very, very far.

The air of uncertainty prevailing world Communist ranks these days was epitomized by the failure of some police and soldiers to go into action against the rioters. Since the banning of Stalinist police terror, what officer can be sure of the limits of his power, or that he will not be classed as a Beria leftover? How many of them would support the government in a real revolt.

In a land which once produced wheat for export, the cry for bread went up, and a demand for higher wages. The Reds began to reap the inevitable harvest from false promises of better living standards, enunciated from Moscow only recently.

Students of Eastern European affairs have been expecting the recent relaxation of centralized Communist controls to produce such outbreaks, and expect more to follow, although there is no confirmation of similar outbreaks in the Baltic states and other Polish cities.

There have been demonstrations in Czechoslovakia in favor of democracy, and in Soviet Georgia against the downgrading of Stalin.

A major question is how the Kremlin will react. Will it be able to adhere to its "soft" line, or will indications of growing unrest force the "collective" government back upon the stern repressionist tactics of Stalin?

U. S. Consumers Must Reckon With Higher Prices

EDITOR'S NOTE:
Following is the second of two articles reviewing the state of business for the first six months of the year by Sam Dawson, Associated Press business news analyst. Dawson has been touring the nation to find out first hand what the situation is.

BUSINESS MIRROR
By SAM DAWSON
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Higher prices—a creeping rise in the cost of living to new record highs—is a strong probability for the consumer to reckon with in the last half of this year.

There's a good chance, however, that reckon with it he can, if he's a persistent bargain hunter. Because the competition will be high, the supply of most goods ample, and the promotion urge strong in the breast of the retailer.

This is no paradox. It stems from two things:
Costs have been rising steadily for some time and seem sure to weak spot, have firmed up some continue to, reflecting rising scales and the delayed aftermath of past inflation.

Increasing production capacity, on the other hand, and the keener rivalry for the consumer's dollar will make profit margin cutting and markdowns a continuing fact of business life.

For services the story is different. Signs point to still higher costs of medical care, fuel and transportation and a higher federal tax on gasoline. Already the cost of living over-all has jumped up to equal the previous record high of October, 1953. It seems sure to go higher this fall.

Wages are still pointed upward. And total jobs, in spite of the much talked about layoffs in the auto industry, hover near record levels. The eleventh round in wage increases since the war are bringing higher settlements this year than last. Many labor contracts have automatic wage increases written into them. Weekly earnings, in spite of loss of overtime and shorter work weeks for many workers, still top the figure for a year ago.

Personal income totals, therefore, seem sure to rise, barring such disasters as long strikes or a breakdown in the economic or international picture generally. Even farm incomes, long the most hope is high that the long downturn has hit bottom.

At mid year the consumer shows definite signs of concentrating on paying off some of the huge debt load he shouldered in the 1955 buying spree. This has cramped his buying style.

Auto makers are especially hopeful. They are planning alluring models—apparently with higher price tags—to revive their market. Design is their top card. The cars will be lower, with much talk of 14-inch wheels, and will look longer, even if they aren't. They will have even more glass, but their colors may not be quite as eye arresting.

Teachers Blame Student Misdeeds On Their Parents

By HERMAN R. ALLEN
WASHINGTON (AP) — School teachers replying to a nationwide survey let fly at parents today as mostly to blame for a list of student misdeeds ranging from drinking to profanity, cheating and impudence.

The teachers, quizzed by the National Education Assn., said they believed student drinking had "definitely increased" in the past 10 years, along with classroom insolence and failure to carry out assignments.

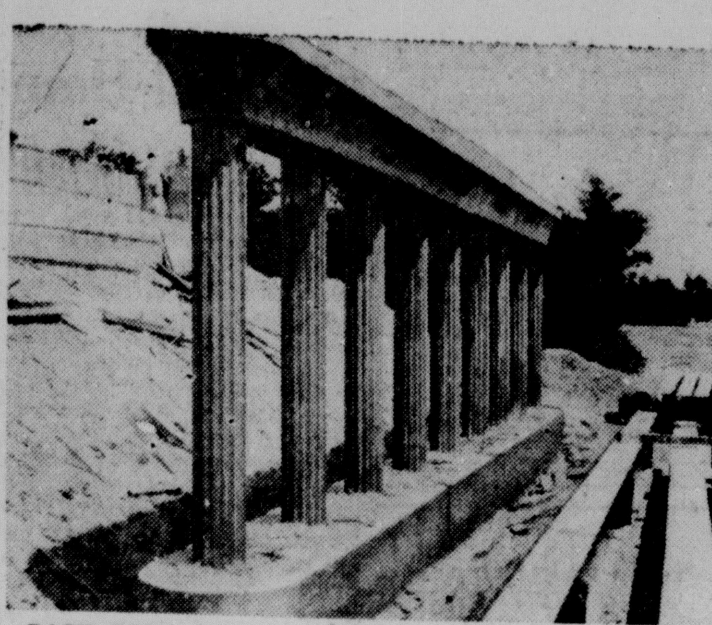

Almost all of them, however, made it clear they think most American children are all right. A trifle over 5 per cent said their students this past year were "often" or "almost always" difficult to handle. The rest said they were either "exceptionally" or "reasonably" well behaved.

More than 90 per cent said conditions are not so bad as portrayed by press, movies and radio.

It was when they came to reasons for such misbehavior as they found that the teachers tore into parents.

Among 17 reasons which the NEA asked them to rank in importance, the largest percentages gave first place to these three: irresponsible parents, unsatisfactory home conditions (low income, broken families, etc.) and lack of supervision because mother working.

Much smaller percentages blamed television and movies, automobiles, undesirable hangouts

Dutch Royal Pair Seeks Source Of Stories Of Rift

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — Queen Juliana and Prince Bernhard asked a commission of elder statesmen today to investigate the circumstances which led to publication of stories in the foreign press concerning their "family life and relations."

It marked the first open step by either the royal couple or the government concerning published reports of difficulties between the Queen and the German-born Bernhard over the Queen's relations with a 61-year-old faith healer.

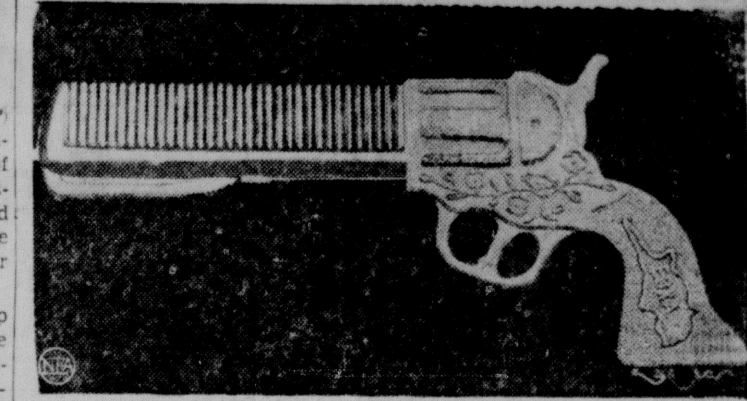

The reports, first published by the German weekly Der Spiegel of Hamburg, said gray-haired Greet Hofmans, who claims God-given powers to heal through prayer, had influenced the Queen. The faith healer was asked by the royal couple eight years ago to visit their youngest daughter, Princess Maria Christina, now 9 and nearly blind.

Miss Hofmans, according to the reports, told the Queen the girl would recover her sight in two years. The faith healer moved into the royal palace and remained there until 1951.

Since then, contact between the Queen and the faith healer have been maintained through frequent visits. The child's eyesight did not improve, reports said.

A high-ranking government official emphasized that the commission would function without responsibility to the government.

'Second Home' Buyers Want Easy-To-Reach Basements

American families want space above everything else in their homes, according to a recent survey completed by the Institute of Home Designers. The Institute asked 1,500 persons who bought homes on Long Island within five years after World War II what they would want if they bought new homes. "More than anything else, they insist upon adequate living space," the Institute says. "They want space for the many electrical appliances which have become commonplace since World War II. They want separate dining space, separate space to view television programs without disturbing the rest of the house, separate play space for the children, separate workshop space and laundry area."

Trends in Modern Living
This survey was undertaken in an attempt to determine which features would be most appealing to new home buyers. The information uncovered highlights significant trends in modern living. Ninety-two percent of the home owners would pay less than $20,000 if they bought another house. Of these, 65 percent would pay less than $15,000. Most home buyers today want: At least three bedrooms and two bathrooms. Adequate space near the kitchen or in the basement for all modern laundry appliances — washer, dryer, ironer. A separate room for the children to play in the daytime and for television viewing. Workshop Space Wanted. A place—preferably the basement—for workshop and storage. A minimum of three outside entrances—one in the front, one to the kitchen and one in the rear of the home directly to the basement. They will accept less expensive material finishes, substitute a carport for a garage, even eliminate bathroom tile if necessary, in order to obtain more accessible living space, the survey shows. The Institute cites other research indicating an overwhelming willingness to eliminate fireplaces in medium and low-priced homes if the sums saved will buy more space. "Thus survey confirms that second-time buyers who have had experience with a home insist upon adequate storage space," the Institute says. "The vast majority want a basement which is directly accessible to the outdoors."

A GOOD RULE FOR STORAGE
A good rule to remember when considering your storage problems is that anything that fits through your front door can also generally fit through your outside basement entrance, says the Institute of Home Designers. The basement door should be wide enough to permit bulky appliances like food freezers to pass through.

FREE! BASEMENT ENTRANCE
It actually costs little or nothing to provide for a separate basement entrance to the outdoors when you are building a home, says the Institute of Home Designers. It points out that the cost of the door in the foundation wall is offset by the savings on the material used in the foundation. The cost of building outside steps is low when a home is under construction, it says. The steps can be covered with an economical steel basement door available at building supply dealers.

TITLE ABOLISHED
From 1349 to 1830, "dauphin" was the title of the eldest son of the King of France. The title was abolished after the revolution of 1830.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

It Pays To Plan Window Details In Your Home

By paying careful attention to window details when you are planning your new home, you can assure yourself of windows which blend perfectly with your home design, provide a maximum of ventilation and are designed to cut your cleaning and painting time to a minimum. Architects report a trend away from the use of large areas of fixed glass which was attempted in the early years after World War II. Not only have large expanses of fixed glass proved expensive, but they often create condensation problems inside the house, since windows that open are the best method yet devised to get rid of excessive indoor humidities.

Double-Hung Windows Favored
Department of Commerce statistics reveal that wood double-hung windows remain the favorite of all window types. Among advantages cited in their favor are that they provide smart residential styling, convey an impression of warmth and charm, are natural insulators, and can be painted to blend with any interior or exterior color scheme.

Double-hung windows offer excellent ventilation for summer cooling. When the top and bottom sashes are each opened half way, convectional circulation is set up. Cool air enters the lower opening, and the warm air of the house is expelled from the top.

R.O.W. Tests Cited
Probably the most important window news in recent years is the development of double-hung wood windows with sash which can be easily removed from the frame. They can be washed quickly and safely. Tests of R.O.W. windows have shown that painting the removable sash on an easel or bench can cut time by two-thirds.

These removable double-hung wood windows are now styled for every residential use. They are made for easy installation in many different combinations, and can be used either in frame or masonry construction.

PAINT BRUSH CARE—To keep paint brushes soft, pliable and clean until the next use, wrap them in the same transparent plastic material in which so many food products are now packaged. To keep wrap air-tight, just bind ends with rubber bands or masking tape.

"Wiffi" Smith Wins British Women's Amateur

By TOM OCHILTREE
SUNNINGDALE, England (AP)—Margaret (Wiffi) Smith, an amiable California-born Amazon from St. Clair, Mich., won the British Women's Amateur Golf Championship Friday with a thumping 8 and 7 triumph over a fellow American, Mary Patton Janssen of Charlottesville, Va.

This victory—her second major title in less than a month—established this freckle-faced 19-year-old as the great new star of feminine golf. She is the youngest American ever to win the British title.

Powerful as artillery off the tees, and crafty in close, Wiffi made this trying ancient game look childishly easy.

Miss Janssen, 28, a distant relative of the late Gen. George S. Patton, fought through the heart-breaking two-round final. But she was clearly overmatched.

Just before they started off in a drizzle over the 6,002-yard, par 36-36-72 Sunningdale course, Miss Smith turned to her caddy and whispered with a grin: "Scalpel, sutures, swabs. . . All ready? Guys, let's operate." And that's what she did.

Miss Smith won the French Women's Championship on June 17.

Walking back to the clubhouse after her victory, Miss Smith said: "I'll be back next year to defend this title. Now I'd like to get the triple. I'm going after the American title."

Ex-Grid Player Warms Cool Fans At Wimbledon

By STERLING SLAPPEY
WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Allen Morris, an ex-football player from the tennis-shy deep South, warmed a cool English crowd into a rooting section Friday with the comeback of the week at Wimbledon.

Morris defeated Ashley Cooper of Australia 1-6, 12-10, 8-6, 3-6, 6-3 and entered the quarterfinals of the Wimbledon Tennis Championships.

The crew-cut blond from Atlanta lost the first set and could not have played much worse. He got only four points in the first five games and the rain swept crowd of 8,000 was hunting the exit.

Early in the second act, the 24-year-old Southerner hit a couple of winners. Then he got his huge service into gear.

From there on he handed a beating to the Australia Davis Cup player and as he moved toward the astonishing victory, the English crowd came back and began cheering Morris home.

He got an ovation at the finish for the victory of the day. Not even top-seeded Lew Had, in his 6-4, 6-1, 6-4 romp over fellow Aussie John O'Brien, received anything like the attention the youngster from Atlanta got. The crowd cheered until he was out of sight in the dressing room.

Only these two men's singles matches were played Friday. The program was given over largely to doubles and rain disrupted and interrupted the early part of the day's play.

In women's singles, where most of the top stars also were idle, the United States lost two more of its entries. Britain's Pat Hird eliminated Louise Snow of Oakland, Calif., 3-6, 6-1, 6-2, in the third round. Mrs. Barbara Scofield Davidson of Milwaukee defeated her third round match to Mrs. J. F. Hale of South Africa.

Tigers Blank A's 5-0 On Homers By Kaline, Maxwell

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Back-to-back home runs by Charlie Maxwell and Al Kaline blasted an inept pitching staff and sent the Cleveland Indians' winning streak at nine straight to a 13-2 decision in the second game of a doubleheader. Herb Score's three-hitter gave the Indians a 5-2 victory in the first game.

Home runs by Hal Naragon and Chico Carrasquel, and the three-hit pitching of Herb Score, gave the Cleveland Indians a 5-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox in the first game of a twinnight doubleheader Friday.

The win stretched Cleveland's winning streak to nine straight. Score would have had a shut-out, but two infield errors gave Chicago two unearned runs in the sixth.

The young southpaw got his seventh victory in 12 decisions. He fanned six, to increase his league-leading total to 106.

Naragon broke up a 2-2 tie in the sixth, with a homer which scored Carrasquel, who had walked.

Carrasquel, traded to Cleveland by the White Sox last winter, homered in the eighth.

Veck Inserts Bid To Purchase Detroit Tigers

By DAVE DILES
DETROIT (AP)—Their victory drought finally over, the Detroit Tigers were down to one big problem Friday: Who will be the next owners of the baseball club?

Latest group to announce plans to bid for the Tiger franchise is one headed by energetic Bill Veck. The New Mexico rancher, who previously ran the Cleveland Indians and the old St. Louis Browns, vows he will discard the stunts he used to pull fans into the parks in other cities.

Things like giving away nylon stockings to the ladies, having his players psychoanalyzed and putting a ruglet into a major league game—"Detroit doesn't need that kind of medicine," said Veck. "This franchise is the greatest one in baseball."

The Tigers, who had gone 11 games without a victory, defeated Kansas City Thursday night.

The club and Briggs Stadium are up for sale, and President Walter O. (Spik) Briggs Jr. believes it will take a 4½-million-dollar offer to get them.

One published report said Briggs had demanded five million dollars and a management contract for himself at a salary of $50,000 annually for five years.

But Briggs called this report "ridiculous."

Although Briggs emphasizes the family does not have to sell, lawyers say it is "advisable" because they believe baseball is not a "prudent investment." Therefore, the ball club could not be part of a trust fund set up to handle the Briggs family holdings.

Ten other syndicates have put up $250,000 bonds necessary to take a look at the Tigers' books and to qualify as bidders. The deadline for bidding is midnight July 2.

Veck said he has 11 Detroiters in his group.

Binghamton, N.Y., is a member of the New York Yankee baseball system. Yankees Whitney Ford, Bob Grim, Bill Skowron, Tom Morgan, Rip Coleman and Jerry Coleman played there.

Tribe Takes First Game Of Doubleheader 5-2; Chisox Win 2nd, 13-2

CLEVELAND (AP)—Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox pitched his 12th victory Friday night, ending the Cleveland Indians' winning streak at nine straight with a 13-2 decision in the second game of a doubleheader. Herb Score's three-hitter gave the Indians a 5-2 victory in the first game.

Home runs by Hal Naragon and Chico Carrasquel, and the three-hit pitching of Herb Score, gave the Cleveland Indians a 5-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox in the first game of a twinnight doubleheader Friday.

The win stretched Cleveland's winning streak to nine straight. Score would have had a shut-out, but two infield errors gave Chicago two unearned runs in the sixth.

The Orioles managed only three hits off lefty Mel Parnell, but scored five runs in the third inning on Ray Moore's first major league homer, with two mates aboard, and a pair of fielding errors by Klaus and Don Budin, Bosox shortstop.

Klaus' Triple In 8th Gives Boston 7-6 Victory

BALTIMORE (AP)—Billy Klaus tripled in Billy Goodman with a tie-breaking run in the eighth inning and the Delock pitched four hitless relief innings Friday night as the Boston Red Sox edged the Baltimore Orioles 7-6.

The Orioles managed only three hits off lefty Mel Parnell, but scored five runs in the third inning on Ray Moore's first major league homer, with two mates aboard, and a pair of fielding errors by Klaus and Don Budin, Bosox shortstop.

Jackie Jensen started Moore to the showers in the seventh and frame by hitting his tenth homer, with Ted Williams on base, to pull the Sox into a tie.

Delock struck out six Bird bats as he slammed the door on Baltimore's hope of gaining ground on fourth-place Boston, and wound up with a flourish by fanning pinchhitter Bob Nelson for the third out in the ninth.

Goalby took advantage of Nannini's poor iron play and overcame a three-up lead for victory. Nannini bogeyed the 12th, 14th and 15th holes. Goalby finished four over par but Nannini was 10 over.

Goalby and Frisina will play 36 holes Saturday for the title. I'll be the second time they have met in the state tournament. Goalby took a 3 and 1 decision over Frisina in the third round of the 1955 meet.

QUESTION: A runner is trapped off second on a pickoff play. He maneuvers around while four fielders chase him down. He turns and heads for third. The second baseman has the ball and is ready to throw to third. The shortstop realizes he is in the way and throws himself on the ground. The runner trips over him. What happens here?—Barry Stone.

Answer: If the umpire rules obstruction, the runner is awarded the base to which he was heading—third, in this case.

Q. With runners on first and second and one out, the batter hits a fly which the shortstop goes back to handle. The runners return to the bag. The batter rounds first, passing the runner returning to the bag. The fielder drops the ball. The runners move up a base—except the batter takes a second and the runner from first remains there. What's the ruling here?—Tony Benante.

A. It never can happen. It is an infield fly and the batter is automatically out whether the fielder catches the ball or not.

Jones And Baxter Meet In College Golf Finals

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Rex Baxter, Jr., of Houston University and Rick Jones of Ohio State Friday banged their way into the finals of the 59th National Intercollegiate Golf Championship.

The 20-year-old Houston senior and the 22-year-old Ohioan will meet Saturday over Ohio State's 7,120-yard par 72 course in the 36-hole championship finals.

Both had rugged matches in the semifinals Friday. Baxter winning two-up over George Clark of North Texas State in a match defeated by a 185-yard hole-in-one by the loser.

Jones, after coming from three down at the end of 10 holes to defeat Jimmie Hickey of Houston, one-up in 19 holes in the quarterfinals, came from behind again in an afternoon round to defeat Jerry Pittman of Southern Methodist in 20 holes.

Brooklyn Drops Phils 6-5 On 3 Homers In Ninth

BROOKLYN (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers came from three runs behind on consecutive ninth-inning home runs by Duke Snider, Randy Jackson and Gil Hodges Friday night to bomb the Philadelphia Phillies 6-5. Snider and Hodges each had two homers in the game.

Snider's second shot, his 17th of the season, was only the fifth off Philie starter Stu Miller, but it came following a walk to Junior Gilliam and closed the gap to 5-4. It also chased Miller and brought on Jack Meyer.

Jackson tagged Meyer's second pitch to the score. Then Hodges lined a first pitch into the left field seats to win it.

The Phils had led all the way until the ninth, scoring a pair in the second off rookie Don Drysdale and adding two more against him on Willie Jones' home run in the fourth. The fifth Phil run came in the eighth.

Illinois Amateur Golfers Tee Off In Semi-Finals

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Jim Frisina, three-time state amateur champion from Taylorville, and Bob Goalby of Bloomington reached the finals Friday of the Illinois State Amateur Golf Championships.

Frisina defeated Stan Pawlowski of Aurora, 3 and 2, and Goalby reached the finals for the first time by whipping Norando Nannini, the 1949 champion from Highland Park, 5 and 3.

Frisina, who won the title in 1942, 1947 and 1954, trailed Pawlowski early in the match but took the 11th, 12th, 13th and 16th holes to win. Frisina's card showed four birdies.

Pirates Score 3 Unearned Runs To Beat Giants 6-3

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Scoring three unearned runs after two out in the seventh inning, the Pittsburgh Pirates halted a three-game losing streak with a 6-3 victory over the last-place New York Giants Friday night. Bob Clemente and Lee Walls homered for the Pirates.

Richthander Vernon Law, who was lifted for a pinch hitter in the seventh, got credit for the win. The third against eight losses, and the first since he won his last game May 26. He had lost five in a row prior to Friday night. Law allowed the Giants only three hits after giving up three runs on four hits in the second.

Trailing 3-2 going into the seventh, the Pirates exploded for three runs after starter Jim Hearn retired the first two batters.

Giant manager Bill Hearn and Sarni were thrown out of the game by the first base umpire for disputing the play on Long in the seventh.

Bahama Decisions Turner For 23rd Straight Victory

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP)—Yama Bahama, a high speed fighting man from Bimini in the Bahama Islands, ran his winning streak to 23 straight Friday night with a unanimous decision over experienced Gil Turner in a 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden. Bahama weighed 154½, Turner 155.

The classy Bahama, whose real name is William Butler, outboxed Turner with his quick left and calmed Turner's persistent furries with his fiery counter bursts. There were no knockdowns but they wound up in a free-swinging exchange that pleased the small crowd of about 2,000 that paid to see the nationally televised bout.

In the final flurry, Turner appeared to be shaken as he was backed near the ropes.

Both judges Nick Gamboli and Joe Eddy scored it for Bahama 7-2-1. Referee Barney Felix had it much closer 5-4-1 in favor of Bahama. The AP card was 8-2 for Bahama, the 12 to 5 favorite.

Turner, a 25-year-old Philadelphia brawler who once fought Kid Gavilan for the welter title, kept boxing in all the time. Bahama Bahama outboxed Turner by a wide margin when he moved away and stabbed with his left. When he chose to trade freely with Turner in the fourth and fifth he came off second best.

Toward the end, Turner's total of 63 tough blows began to take their toll. His rallies didn't pack the steam of earlier rounds while Bahama threw dazzling combinations of jab, right uppercuts and left hook.

Cardinals Stop Hot Hitting Redlegs 4-1 On Mizell's 4-Hitter

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals made Cincinnati's lead in the National League's tight-rope race a brief one Friday night as the Redbirds' Vinegar Bend Mizell pitched a four-hitter for a 4-1 victory. The Redlegs had fallen here to the league lead in the afternoon, following Milwaukee's loss.

Mizell's victory was his eighth against five defeats, and it ended a three-game losing streak for the large left-hander. Power-packed Cincinnati's best hit against him was Ed Bailey's double in the sixth, which drove home Frank Robinson, who had walked. The Cardinals won it with three runs in a scrambled seventh inning. Wally Moon led off with a base on balls from Redlegs' pitcher Joe Nuxhall. Moon was thrown out at third, trying to gain two bases on the hit-and-run on Hal Smith's single.

Bob Del Greco then hit deep to left for what the Cardinals considered a home run into the bleachers. But a fan had reached over the wall to grab the ball, and it was ruled a ground-rule double.

Mizell then hit to Roy McMillan, and the shotgun throw to the plate. A run-down on Smith ended in a throw that struck his shoulder and rolled onto the outfield grass. Smith and Del Greco scored. Mizell went to second, advanced on a single and scored the third run on Al Dark's sacrifice fly.

Paper beer cups were thrown onto the field, and Cardinal manager Fred Hutchinson was thrown out of the game, as the Redbirds scored. Mizell went to second, advanced on a single and scored the third run on Al Dark's sacrifice fly.

NEW YORK
Yankees made the most of a paltry five hits Friday night, and backed by the superb pitching of Bob Grim, defeated the Washington Senators 3-1.

Grim was forced to retire in the eighth after giving up only two hits. Don Larson and Rip Coleman finished.

Four of the Yanks' hits, in fact, did not even figure in the scoring. They tallied twice in the first on one hit and sent their other run across in the third without the benefit of a hit.

Yanks Take 3-1 Win Over Nats Behind Grim

The Senators, for their part, were virtually helpless against Grim. The big right-hander's only lapse was in the second, when he was tagged for a home run by catcher Clint Courtney.

The one big hit for Casey Stengel's operatives was Hank Bauer's first-inning double which bounced into the right field stands with the bases loaded, sending Joe Collins and Mickey Mantle clattering across the plate.

Senator pitcher Pedro Ramos had issued passes to Collins, Mantle and Norm Siebern, filling the bases.

A physician's report on Grim was that he had a slight strain of a tendon on the right elbow. It is not considered serious, but he probably will miss his next turn against the Boston Red Sox July 4.

PETS TO GET TATTOOS
BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore County Humane Society is acquiring tattooing outfit as a means of solving the stray dog and cat problem.

A tattoo of a letter and number will be applied indelibly in the animal's ear, and the number will be filed at the county shelter as a permanent record. In this way, the society hopes to reduce the load of unidentifiable animals on its hands. So far this year the society has received more than 7,000 dogs and cats.

Local anaesthesia will be applied before the tattoo goes on.

The world population is growing at the rate of about 110,000 people a day.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE With MAJOR HOOPLE OUT OUR WAY
By J. P. WILLIAMS

THE MAJOR TELLS ME HE USED TO BE A SCOTLAND YARD MAN! IS THAT STORY OR IS HE JUST THROWING ME ANOTHER KNUCKLE-BALL?

HE'S GOT MORE STORIES THAN A SCOTLAND YARD MAN! I KNOW THAT SOMEONE IS ALWAYS COPPING HIM AS CAREFULLY AS A CAFE-TERIA TRAY!

YOU HAVE TO SPREAD SEASONING ON MOST OF HIS YARNS! HE SERVES THEM RAW!

THE ONLY REST THE BULL OF THE WOODS GETS FROM ALL THE GUYS WHO FETER HIM IS WHEN HE COMES OUT HERE TO THE SCRAP PILE WITH A RULE IN HIS HAND IN PLAIN SIGHT—AND NOBODY GOES NEAR HIM!

YOU KNOW WHY THEY'RE AFRAID HE'LL PUT 'EM DISGON SOME PIECE OUT FOR HIM TO LOOK AT IN OTHER WORDS, THEY CAN FIND HIM ANYWHERE BUT AT THE "IRON ROCK PILE."

DOWN BOY
CHARLESTON, S.C. — The Charleston News and Courier sent a girl reporter to interview singer Elvis Presley Thursday night. She took a picture of him sitting in his car.

He bit her on the hand. "Hey, you, what's the idea? You trying to make like Marlon Brando or something?" she asked.

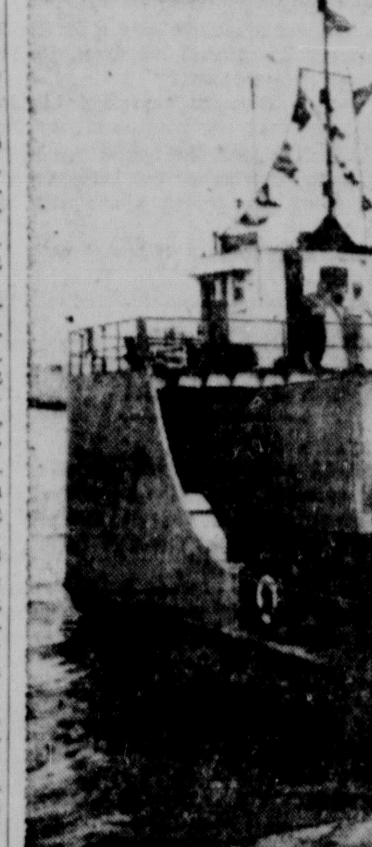

"I was only being friendly, like a little puppy dog," said Presley. When the reporter explained it was the first time anyone had ever bitten her to show friendliness, Presley replied: "Lady, if you want to get ahead, you gotta be different."

Birthday party coming up? Frost a layer cake and mark the initials of the birthday boy or girl in the center of the cake with small pieces of semi-sweet chocolate. Add birthday candles!

Add diced leftover cooked pork to a Waldorf salad: celery, apple and mayonnaise.

Go Italian! Add thinly sliced zucchini squash (cooked first in a little butter) to an omelet.

FISHYBACK — Piggyback movement of loaded trailers by railroad car has inspired "fishyback" service out of Miami, Fla. for the Virgin Islands. Cheered by success, "TMT" trailer-ship fleet may expand operations to include a South American service.

SAYS DROWNING OF OILER ON STEAMER, ACCIDENTAL

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Coast Guard said Friday it was satisfied that the drowning of an oiler who disappeared from the freighter William G. Mather Monday night was accidental.

"We plan no further inquiry at this time," said a Coast Guard spokesman after a marine inspection officer questioned the crew of the Mather at Huron, Ohio.

The Coast Guard said questioning of the crew indicated that the victim, Raymond Erickson, 25, of Erie, Pa., was not on duty at the time of his disappearance. His ship was in Superior-Duluth Harbor at the time.

The Coast Guard said it had no statement on another Mather crewman, Carl R. Nos, 54, of Cleveland, who reportedly was cut when his spectacles were broken in a fight aboard the ship Monday night.

Government Extends Soil Bank Deadlines

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department Friday gave farmers more time to remove crops from land in order to qualify for payments under the soil bank acreage reserve program.

The department wired all state committees directing them to fix no deadline earlier than July 15 for removing crops. Previously the state committees had been empowered to fix a deadline as early as June 30.

State committees still may fix deadlines later than July 15, but not earlier.

"Farmers just didn't have enough time," a department official said in explaining the later deadline.

Farmers may qualify land for participation on the acreage reserve by plowing under, clipping, moving or otherwise removing crops from the land.

The extended deadline applies not only to the six basic crops — corn, wheat, cotton, tobacco, rice and peanuts — but to other crops, such as oats, which farmers might want to remove to qualify the acreage for soil bank payments.
